HEBREW SCRIPTURE

Deuteronomy 34:1-7

Then Moses went up from the steppes of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the South, and the plain of the Valley of Jericho, town of palm trees, as far as Zoar. And the LORD said to him, "This is the land that I swore to Abraham to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'To your seed I will give it.' I have let you see with your own eyes, but you shall not cross over there." And Moses, the LORD's servant, died there in the land of Moab by the word of the LORD. And he was buried in the glen in the land of Moab opposite Beth Peor, and no man has known his burial place to this day. And Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eye had not grown bleary and his sap had not fled.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our God in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory forever...Amen.

Intro.

Voice

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 4/4 time signature. It begins with an 'Intro.' section consisting of two measures of music. The first measure contains a quarter note G4, a quarter note A4, and a quarter note Bb4. The second measure contains a quarter note C5, a quarter note Bb4, and a half note G4. This is followed by a repeat sign. The main body of the score consists of six lines of music, each with a measure number (4, 8, 12, 15, 18) at the beginning. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words connected by lines to indicate they are sung over multiple notes. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. There are three alternative endings for the final line of music, labeled 1, 2, and 3.
