PRELUDE

In This Moment of Remembrance
[by Dale Wood]

GATHERING MOMENT

Mary Juaréz Dalton

“Maundy” comes from the Latin word “commandment,” and refers to the commandment Jesus shared with his disciples during their last supper: love one another. Tonight, we remember that meal as we share the sacrament of communion from our homes and consider what it means to allow Jesus to be part of our lives.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Mary Juaréz Dalton

- L: The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, and the Communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
- A: And also with you.
- L: Come and remember the love of Jesus, gathered at the table with his friends.
- A: We come to receive from Christ the bread of life, the cup of blessing.
- L: Come, receive the tender service Christ offers each of us.

A: We come to receive the challenge of the new commandment: “Love one another.”

L: Come and contemplate the many temptations of a world that would entice us, like Judas, to betray the trust of a suffering God.

A: We come to travel with Jesus the way of the Cross, so that our Easter “alleluia” will take on new meaning.

L: Let us worship together and reflect upon the life of Christ.

A: That we might remember what discipleship may cost, and what it may reap.

UNISON PRAYER

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Leader: It is right and a good and joyful thing...And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Sung: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Leader: Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ...And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ’s offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Sung: Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Leader: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here...Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

Sung: Amen, amen, amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Rev. Sungho Lee

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
